Once a poor man was driving his donkey – cart to market town. On his way he had to cross a bridge where every cart – driver had to pay toll-tax. As he came near a bridge, he was asked by the toll-keeper to pay the tax. The poor man had no money but the toll – Keeper would not allow him to go. He said, “See the notice: All cart-drivers shall have to pay tax.” The poor man turned his cart round & started to go home. Soon an idea struck him. He unyoked the donkey and put him in the driver’s seat. Then he yoked himself to the cart and pulled it towards the bridge again. At the bridge the toll-keeper in wonder said, “Tax-Please”. “Don’t ask me. Ask the driver;” replied the man and pulled the cart away. The toll-keeper laughed loudly.

Questions:-

- (1) Where was the poor man going with his donkey cart?
- (2) Why did the toll-keeper stop the driver of the donkey cart?
