1. Worldly success measured by the accumulation of money is no doubt a very dazzling thing, and all men are more or less admires of worldly success. But though men of persevering, sharp, dexterous and unscrupulous habits, ever on the watch to push opportunities, may and do, 'get on' in the world, yet it is quite possible that they may not possess the slightest elevation of character nor a particle of greatness. He who recognises no higher logic than that of the shilling may become a very rich man yet remain all the while an exceedingly poor creature. For riches are no proof whatever of moral worth and their glitter often serves only to draw attention to the worthlessness of their, measurable by his money. If he has a fat purse and a lean heart, a broad estate and a narrow understanding, what will his 'means' do for him- what will his 'worth' gain him? Let a man be what he will, it is the mind and heart that make a man poor or rich, miserable or happy for these are always stronger than fortune.
 2. Corruption has spread through India like an epidemic. At every twist and turn you meet people who are willing to do anything dishonest in order to earn money. Dishonesty in words and deeds is so common now that people have almost accepted it as a rule rather than an exception. An honest person is a bit of an oddity in present day India. Isn't that a rather sad state of affairs? We all know from our experience that a lie will lead to another ten lines; a misdeed may need another ten misdeeds to cover it up. Still, we tell lies and do wrong things.
Every religion tells us that we must be honest. No one likes dishonest people because they cannot be trusted. The truth is always so simple. Dishonesty is like a whirlpool from which escape is difficult. Sometimes we are punished for being honest, but it is nothing compared to the pain and suffering that we cause to others due to our dishonesty. Gandhiji laid great emphasis on the need for truthfulness in words and deeds. His life throughout was a struggle to uphold the virtue of truth. A truthful person can speak and act with moral conviction. He commands respect and reverence in society. Such people are necessary in the world today.

My role model has always been my mother. She is the most important and loving personality in this world, because she has made me what I am today. I remembered every day from when I was innocent child to now as a young adult, she has motivated and inspired me with her strength and courage to never give up no matter how many times life throws you down. She has shown me the true meaning of love and support and that no matter how difficult things get, I can always count on her countless guidance and encouragement. My mother is the reason I am who I am today, because she has been my inspiration right from day one. She encourages me to be strong and follow my dreams; it's all thanks to her that I have been able to grow up in a nurturing and loving environment.

જીવન એક સફર સમયના રાજમાર્ગ પર સફર કરી. તેથી, સમય કિંમતી છે. જીવનની દરેક ક્ષણનો યોગ્ય રીતે ઉપયોગ કરવો જોઈએ, કારણ કે એક વખત ખોવાઈ ગયેલો સમય ક્યારેય પાછો મેળવી શકાતો નથી. અને રોકવાનો કોઈ રસ્તો નથી તેનો યોગ્ય રીતે ઉપયોગ થવો જોઈએ, કારણ કે સમય, એકવાર ખોવાઈ જાય, તે ક્યારેય પાછો મેળવી શકાતો નથી. અને સમયના હાથને ધબકતા અટકાવવાનો કોઈ રસ્તો નથી. તેથી નાનપણથી જ, વ્યક્તિએ સમયની કિંમતની કદર કરવાનું શીખવું જોઈએ. જેમ વ્યક્તિએ પૈસાનો શ્રેષ્ઠ ઉપયોગ કરવાનું શીખવું જોઈએ, તેમ સમયનો શ્રેષ્ઠ ઉપયોગ કરવાનું પણ શીખવું જોઈએ. સાચું જ કહ્યું છે કે, 'સમય અને ભરતી કોઈની રાહ જોતી નથી.' જે લોકો સમયનું મૂલ્ય સમજે છે, તેઓ વિલંબને બદલે ક્રિયામાં માને છે. તેઓ તેનો ઉપયોગ જ્ઞાન અને વિવિધ ઉપયોગી કુશળતા પ્રાપ્ત કરવા માટે કરે છે.
