Once upon a time there lived a king who had a favourite jester in his court. It was his duty to amuse his king and the courtiers. He was allowed much liberty by the king who put up with the unkindest jokes of the jester, with the result that he became almost a nuisance to the whole court.

One day, however, the jester offended the king with a very vulgar comment. Thought it was unintentional, the king was very angry and gave him death sentence. The jester fell on his knees, and pleaded for his life. But the king refused to alter the sentence. But then he said, "I cannot spare your life, but I allow you one concession. You can choose the manner of death you would like to die." The clever jester at once said, "I choose, Your Majesty, to die of old age."

Questions:

- 1) Who lived with the king?
- 2) What was the duty of the Jester?
- 3) What was the result of Jester's liberty?
- 4) Why was the king very angry upon the Jester?
