Course Title	MODERN INDIAN POLITICAL THOUGHTS-2

Course Objectives:

- The objective of this paper is to study important themes of modern political thinkers. The paper has been designed to give students a glimpse of the richness and diversity within Indian Political thought.
- The thinkers have been consciously selected to represent a wide spectrum of ideologies and vantage points within the modern Indian thought tradition. Selected extracts from original texts are also given to discuss in the class. This shall help students to have some experience in understanding how these thinkers build up their arguments and develop their views on the respective themes.
- The students will be able to understand socio-political ideas of Gandhi, Ambedkar, Nehru, etc.

Course Learning Outcomes:

- The course is aimed to equip students with critical understanding about modern Indian thought. The thematic exploration of ideas is meant to locate the topical debates on important subjects on a historical trajectory and reflect over the diverse possibilities exhibited in the writings of the respective thinkers.
- It is expected that at the end of the course, the students will be able to think about issues and debates in contemporary India from multiple vantage points, including its historical significance in the Indian tradition.
- It would also help them develop tolerance and respect for diverse opinions and, at the same time, to admire and appreciate the plurality within the modern Indian intellectual tradition.
