NSS Unit Bhakta Kavi Narsinh Mehta University - Junagadh

NSS Unit Shri Choksi Arts & Commerce College - Veraval (Gir Somnath)

NSS Program Officer

Dr. A. M. Chocha

Report of COVID - 19

Subject - Under Coronavirus epidemic Performance report of Choksi College Veraval NSS Volunteers

The Hon'ble Prime Minister made the first national address on the Coronavirus epidemic in which he appealed to the entire nation to unite and fight against the Coronavirus as well as to be vigilant., Nurses, Police Department, NCC, NSS, NYK, etc.

Considering the above Hon'ble Prime Minister's address Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports Hon'ble Minister Shri Kiren Rijiju informed all the states in which Police Chief Shri Sivananda Jai appealed to NSS volunteers to join the operation through a press conference in which Gujarat State NSS Cell Officer Shri and NSS Regional Officer Shri Shri Sivananda Jha Consulted NSS Coordinator, Program Officer of the each University of Gujarat State As well as volunteers are committed to working with you.

Given the above idea, the coordinator of each university has been informed that to cope with the critical situation of Coronavirus. COVID - 19 National Service Scheme volunteers have been directed to voluntarily help in the duty of good police to maintain law and order in the ongoing lockdown.

Under the Bhakta Kavi Narasih Mehta University-Juagadh NSS Coordinator Shri Dr. Parag D. Devani Sir prepared an information form for the volunteers who wanted to voluntarily join the COVID 19 operation and called for information online in which 37 volunteers of Choksi College Veraval NSS Unit showed readiness with the consent of the parents to work. The list of program officers, as well as volunteers, was sent by the university to NSS Cell Gandhinagar. The list was sent to the District Police by e-mail under which the Program Officer Shri Dr. A. M. Chocha Sir was informed by phone from Girsomnath District Police Headquarters that there was a letter asking to receive the consent which he informed the Coordinator Shri Devani Sir. After consulting with him and accepting the letter, the list of volunteers prepared for COVID 19 operation was given to Shri. M. M. Parmar Sir GirSomnath District Nodal Officer and Deputy Superintendent of Police Headquarters submitted the list of names of volunteers. By volunteering to call each of the volunteers you are willing to work with parental consent as well as getting information about the family situation at their village or city where the police station is located. Forming a team with the police department, giving proper instructions and beating to everyone Masks, Hats, T-shirts, Sanitizers, and Hand gloves were given to each volunteer by the Police Department Suraksha Setu Society Girsomnath.

37 NSS volunteers from Shri Choksi College Veraval (1) Police Inspector Shri N. G. Vaghela Veraval Police Station GirSomnath, which has been assigned the responsibility of 21 volunteers. They formed teams at different points and gave guidance on what to do and wished to participate in this. (2) Police Inspector Shri G. M. Rathava Prabhas Patan Police Station GirSomnath, which has been assigned the responsibility of 11 volunteers. They formed teams at different points and gave guidance on what to do and wished to participate in this. (3) Police Sub-Inspector Shri. A. M. Herma Sutrapada Police Station Girsomnath, which has been assigned the responsibility of 6 volunteers. They formed teams at different points and gave guidance on what to do and wished to participate in this.

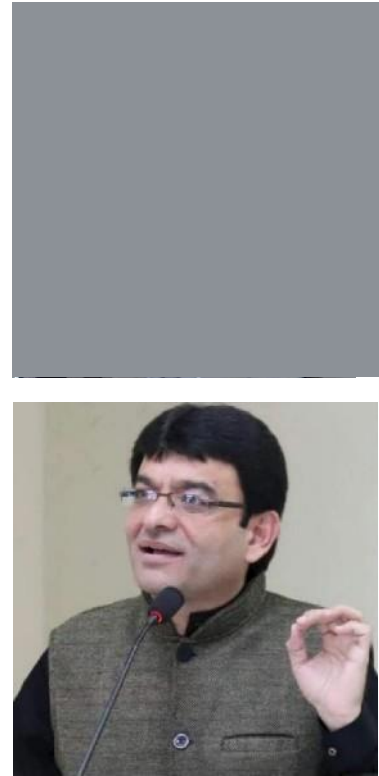

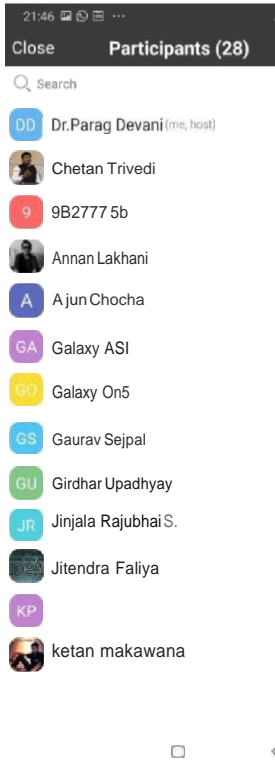

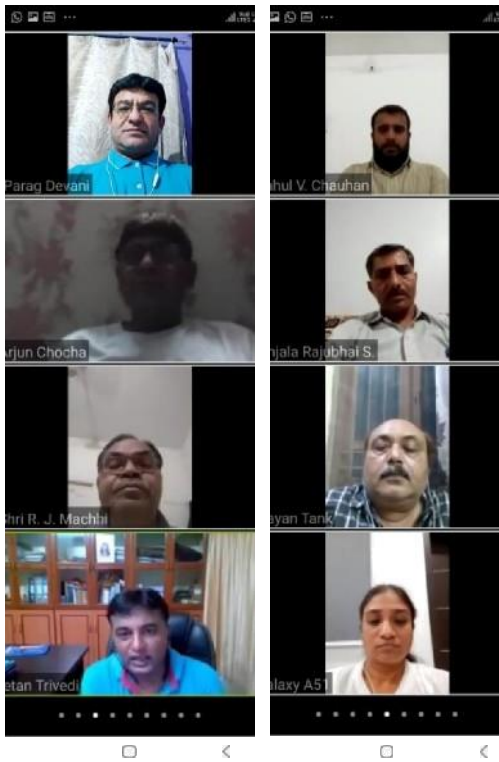

All of the above volunteer's traffic control, Social Distance, Bank / ATM, Cheap Grocery Store as well as Vegetable Market. The important thing is that most of the volunteers are faithfully performing their duty by giving time for national service at their own expense every day from a village 10 to 23 km away. As well as the two volunteers perform their duty morally despite the fast of the whole day in the month of Ramadan. Significantly, it is noteworthy that when the whole nation is at home today, despite realizing the seriousness of such a coronavirus, their parents agreed to serve the nation by signing a consent form. Most of the volunteers do not even have money for fuel or vehicle rental , yet they have dedicated their precious time for national service for a long time like a month full of continuity. They deserve thanks.

An online meeting was organized by Bhakat Kavi Narasimha Mehta University Junagadh NSS Program Coordinator Shri Paragbhai Devani for the program officers performing duties under COVID-19 at 9:30 pm on 22nd April 2020 in which Vice-Chancellor of Bhakat Kavi Narsinh Mehta University Junagadh.Prof. Dr. Chetanbhai Trivedi, as well as NSS Cell Gandhinagar Officer Shri Machhi Sir and Gujarat NSS Regional Director Shri Girdhar Upadhyay Sir as well as Program Officers of different colleges, were contacted and necessary guidance and instructions were given. As well as best wishes for successful operation.

The entire operation information, as well as the report NSS Cell Gandhinagar, Bhakta Kavi Narsinh Mehta University NSS Cell Coordinator Shri Paragbhai Devani as well as other responsible officers and the Police Department, are constantly giving guidance and suggestions. Accordingly, the program officer Dr. A. M. Chocha provides Guidance planning and giving instructions from time to time. As well as the place where the volunteers perform their duty every day, they meet face to face with the problem or difficulty as well as if there is any need, they are consulted and given proper guidance so that their enthusiasm is maintained.

Including other online operations IGOT registration- 94, Download Aarogya Setu app - 230, Mask distribution- 219, PPT & Handbook reading-266. Has been done.

In addition to NSS Cell Gandhinagar Officers, Bhakta Kavi Narsinh Mehta University Chancellor and Program Coordinator and Police Department, Media Person as well as NSS Volunteers are taking special note of the national work that they are doing in the summer heat which is a matter of pride for us.
